THE ULTIMATE GIFT

ULTIMATE GIVING

Your will (or trust) is an important and powerful document. Through it, you care for the needs of your loved ones and ensure your resources are transferred in a God-honoring way.

Your completed will offers the ultimate statement to your family and the world about what matters most to you.

When you give to FEBC through your will, you model to your loved ones a legacy of biblical stewardship and generosity. You also help FEBC continue to communicate the Good News among the nations by media to inspire people to follow Jesus Christ for generations to come.

A GREAT JOY-MAKER

"The spiritual act of giving is truly a great joy-maker in our lives. Through our estate plan, others will see that we're followers of Jesus and that there is nothing more important to us than proclaiming the Word."

– Steve and Julie

WHY GIFTS IN A WILL?

Legacy. Extend the impact of your generosity, well beyond your lifetime.

Satisfaction. Experience the joy of putting your resources to work for Kingdom purposes.

Availability. Retain access to your resources for as long as you need them.

Flexibility. Change your mind at any time about how your charitable gifts are designated.

Capacity. Potentially give the largest gift you'll ever have the ability to give.

HOW MUCH SHOULD I GIVE?

What's the right amount to leave to FEBC and the other causes close to your heart? Many families consider one of three giving models.

Percentage or Tithe. Many individuals allocate a certain percentage of their estate toward Kingdom causes, such as 10 percent to reinforce tithing.

Child Named Charity. Some families add a "child named Charity" to their wills. For example, if a couple had four children, each of the children would receive 1/5 of their belongings, and the remaining 1/5 could go toward charity.

Gifts of Assets. People often designate real estate, business interests, life insurance, retirement assets, or other assets as gifts to charity. Often, it's because the property has special meaning, or their children have no further use for it, or because they wish to protect their families from unnecessary taxes.

WE'D LOVE TO "THANK YOU!"

We know you care deeply about our mission!

By letting FEBC know about your planned ultimate gift, you can help us plan ahead to meet the ministry needs about which you care so much.

You also give us the opportunity to thank and honor you for the difference you will make, well beyond your lifetime.

LET'S DISCUSS!

Is a gift in your will the right giving solution for you? We would love to discuss your goals and situation, and we'll help answer any questions you have.

For additional information, including legal language to use within your will or trust, call or email us today.
