

FEBC Prayer Target – October, 2026

Unreached Prayer Focus: The Yao

The Yao are an unreached people group living primarily in Malawi. They are predominately Muslim, and in almost every remote village you can find a mosque. Mostly farmers and fishermen, the Yao people live in small, communal villages with homes made of simple materials.

The Yao of Malawi also have some of the highest HIV rates in the world, with an estimated ten percent of Yao adults believed to be living with either HIV or AIDS.

When Christian missionaries came in the late 1800s and early 1900s, the Yao were extremely resistant to the Gospel. Today however, Christian content is being broadcast in the local Yao language, which is causing many to take notice and tune in to hear the Gospel in their heart language.

Despite this progress, resistance to the Gospel is still high. Only 1% of Yao are Evangelical Christians, and many of those who do convert—like Saladin from Malawi—face immense persecution from their families and local communities.

Thursday, October 1

Pray for the Gospel to reach the hearts of the Yao people. Lift up the broadcasters, missionaries, and pastors who travel long distances to fellowship with Yao Christians and share Jesus with Yao Muslims. May their work be fruitful and spread...until all have heard!

Friday, October 2

Please pray for those living in Myanmar. People all over the country are living in fear and the military takeover has caused great anxiety.
